

Make A Picture Book

Your Main Character

Also called a protagonist, your main character is the most important person in your story. It's good to get to know who they are.

Draw a picture and add some words to describe your character's appearance (the way they look) and their personality (what they like, and think, and want). Remember, characters don't have to be people!

My Character's Name

Aulexic

Aulexic: Specialising in books for children with language and literacy difficulties

<http://www.aulexic.com.au>

Make A Picture Book Story Boards

1. Ordinary World

Where does your story begin;
what is your character's life like?

2. Inciting Incident

What happens to send your character on an adventure?

3. Allies and Enemies

Who or what first helps or hinders your character?

4. Midpoint

What big clue or truth is discovered?

5. Climax

How does your character fix their problem or face their enemy?

6. Resolution

How does your story end?
Is there a happily-ever-after?

